CATERING + DESIGN

ABOUT

Edenopolis events is a full service event planning and catering company. We offer unique and colorful designs for events of any size, including corporate events, galas, weddings, cocktail parties, and everything in between. We are passionate about the timeless tradition of feasting and create bountiful tables that invoke feelings of luxury and joy. We offer private chef services for smaller events, passed canapes, and on site cooking with traditional home cooked recipes. For the past fifteen years, chef Richard and his partner Eve have traveled the world each year researching food and culture, as well as catering international events. It is our passion and purpose to help people celebrate with food!

HOW IT WORKS

It starts with a brief consultation where you let us know about the occasion, guest count, location, and date. This can be done over the phone with us or you can fill out our online form at edenopolis.com. Once the basic information has been gathered we move on to your food and design. If you have any specific requests, cultural nods, dietary restrictions, or anything else, please let us know. Otherwise, you can select one of our pre-fix menus on our website, or select dishes from our full main course and canapes menus.
